A Practitioner's Pack for the Delivery of Equality and Diversity

Suitable for learners of all ages and all sectors

This activity pack contains 19 practical tried and tested activities specifically aimed at raising staff and learner awareness of equality and diversity issues.

The activities can be used as part of staff and learner induction, professional /staff development and learner development in a range of settings and come complete with differentiation ideas and materials to meet diverse needs.

Thanks

A range of practitioners and managers of FE colleges and work based learning organisations, and teachers, support staff and learners have contributed to this set of resources. Without these contributions the content of the pack would not be as wide ranging and rich.

We have worked with specialists to ensure that learners at all levels can access the activities within this pack.

Thanks to all who have helped us to produce this excellent pack of resources.

About the Activities

These entertaining and thought provoking activities give participants the opportunity to experience life from a different viewpoint and/or discuss issues with those who may have suffered discrimination, unwitting or otherwise, at first hand.

This activity pack contains 19 practical tried and tested activities specifically aimed at engaging staff and learners. They offer the participants powerful insights into key equality and diversity issues. The activities can be used as part of staff induction and training programmes, as well as with learners in the classroom.

Each activity plan contains the following information:

Activity Descriptions

Activity 1 What Does Equality and Fairness Mean to You?

Participants identify words and phrases to highlight their own understanding of what the words equality and fairness mean and the issues they associate with them, before comparing their ideas and understanding with the views of others.

This activity can be adapted for used with participants with learning difficulties or disabilities.

Activity 2: Personal Profile

In this activity participants create their own personal profile and share it with a partner to highlight the richness of the diversity in the room the fact that we are all of us much more than what appears on the surface.

This activity can be adapted for used with participants with learning difficulties or disabilities.

Activity 3: What's in a Name?

Participants consider the origins of their own names and their feelings about them before reflecting on the importance of names within some cultures and the need to respect this in daily life.

This activity can be adapted for used with participants with learning difficulties or disabilities.

Activity 4: Equalities Bingo

This is a fun and energising activity in which participants have to find people with knowledge about role models and equality and diversity issues in everyday life and popular culture in order to win the game.

Activity 5: Language & Culture Quiz

The numbers and diversity of languages used within the UK are brought home to participants through this True or False quiz, along with the ways in which language can become a barrier to inclusion.

Activity 6: Sticks and Stones

Participants decide how they would challenge a real life situation where an employee is working in an environment where language that he considers racist and that he finds offensive is being used around him, and also consider the legal and ethical issues involved.

This activity can be adapted for used with participants with learning difficulties or disabilities.

Activity 7: Race equality Quiz

This quiz draws the participants' attention to the fact that immigration is not a recent phenomenon and how people from BME communities have overcome barriers to make considerable contributions in the in media, sport and wider political society.

Activity 8: Religion & Belief Quizzes

A range of quizzes covering Judaism, Hinduism and Islam helps to expand the participants' knowledge about world religions and leads to suggestions about how schools, colleges and workplaces can better support people's religious practices.

Activity 9: Right & Wrong Cards

Cards featuring various discriminatory comments and issues are used as discussion prompts to encourage participants to consider whether such behaviour is acceptable and how it may be viewed by the individuals concerned and by teachers/tutors and employers.

This activity can be adapted for used with participants with learning difficulties or disabilities.

Activity 10: Negative Stereotypes of Youth & Age

By allocating a range of negative stereotypes to older or young people in the workplace and comparing their views, participants come to realise that many of the same stereotypes are commonly applied to both groups, and consider ways of combating such ageism.

Activity 11: Sign Language

A practical activity in which participants try using British Sign Language and develop their own signs to impart information before reflecting on the importance of non verbal communication in daily life and for some people with disabilities.

This activity can be adapted for used with participants with learning difficulties or disabilities.

Activity 12: Definitions

The importance of language and what we mean by certain terms is demonstrated as participants devise individual and group definitions of the terms 'equality' and 'diversity' and suggest actions to promote equality and diversity in school/college and the workplace

Activity 13: Emotions & Feelings

A poem provides the inspiration to help participants see beyond differences in looks or behaviour to the individual beneath and identify ways of challenging bullying and discrimination.

This activity can be adapted for used with participants with learning difficulties or disabilities.

Activity 14: Acceptable & Unacceptable Language

In order to explore how they can adapt the language they use in response to people's preferences and sensitivities, participants identify acceptable alternatives to a range of terms used to describe different groups and which the people concerned may find offensive.

This activity can be adapted for used with participants with learning difficulties or disabilities.

Activity 15: Race Relations Quiz

This quiz draws the participants' attention to the differences between direct and indirect discrimination and victimisation and harassment and the extent of the coverage of the Equality Act 2010.

Activity 16: Colour Blind

A poem leads participants to explore how physical attributes tell you nothing about personality, intelligence or ability, and to question the assumptions they make about others based on their own use of stereotyping.

Activity 17: The Jelly Baby Challenge

This activity uses the popular sweet to help participants reflect on the meaning of diversity, the importance of respecting differences as well as similarities, and the unique contribution each person brings to society.

Activity 18: The Crayon Box

Shane Derolf's poem, The Crayon Box That Talked, brings home to participants the importance of understanding and respecting each other's strengths, cultures and values so that we can work together for the benefit of all.

Activity 19: Harmless Banter?

Participants look at the excuses people use to justify making potentially hurtful comments and learn to recognise when 'harmless' teasing and banter crosses the line to become discrimination, harassment, victimisation or bullying.
